London, UK, 20th of February 2013 – The young DJ duo Bis Boys Please (Afonso Gomes da Silva and Tomás Gaivão Ribeiro) from Lisbon have taken center stage at festivals such as Rock in Rio (Lisbon Edition), MTV/TMN "ISCTE GALA XXI", as well as some of the most popular venues in Portugal and Rio de Janeiro.

Their monthly radio podcast on iTunes has reached Number 1 in the Top10 EDM podcasts in Portugal and after two successful years touring, their efforts in the production studio are finally seeing the light of day.

As the name already indicates "Le Début De Tout" – will also be the debut release (SM001) on the Anglo/Iberian label sinnmusik and the two track single mastered by Rak Studios will be out in all major digital music stores and streaming services as well as selected vinyl stores on the 25th of February 2013.

"Oscar Was Right is an insanely infectious and highly addictive track that has been expertly composed by emotionally charged sounds. A steady deep groove and an effective rhythm join everything to make this a dance floor filler."

"Aquarela has a fantastic melody that reminds us of Balearic anthems. The track generates a strong and powerful atmosphere with a true groove that takes you on a summery journey. A "Flush-Draw" for the upcoming sunny season."

Aquarela will also feature a music video directed by the Portuguese CLAP Award winner Gonçalo Pelágio, which will be screened at the release show on March 7th 2013.
