London, UK, 2014 – With his sinnmusik debut receiving support from the likes of Laurent Garnier, John Digweed, Joyce Muniz and Shadow Child, label favourite Georgi Barrel returns with another batch of dusty samples and deep, infectious House grooves.

Listen: <http://soundcloud.com/sinnmusik-1/sets/sm014>

The title track opens things up with full and rounded low-end bubbling under a rich entanglement of crowd noise and soft, rotating sample loops while a healthy selection of real instruments maintain a soft and soulful tone throughout.

First up on remix duties is Frits Wentink - following up releases on Wolf Music and 20:20 Vision, the Dutch native bolsters Late Nite Foray and tucks it into a tighter, more forceful swing using mangled percussive whacks and sportive synth lines to suit it perfectly for brimful dancefloors.

Next up is Denmark based Desos. With releases on his own Deso Records and Berlin's Rawax, his Late Nite Foray revision blends course hats and softened synth tones with resistless and effective bass sequencing.

'Lonely Game' closes up with some arresting vocal snippets and circling synth patterns. A spearing bass stab sits below shuffling hats and a glowing horn sample that puts Georgi's hefty vinyl collection to good use.
