Release Date: 09th of February 2015

File Under: Deep House

London, UK, 2015 – Adrian follows up his contributions to the 'Back'N'Front' series, a collaboration on w&o StreetTracks as well as his recent solo effort 'Push Up' that garnered support from the likes of Darius Syrossian, Tom Findlay, Reboot, Danny Daze and Maya Jane Coles with his latest offering: the 'Rosebud Bitterdose' EP that comes backed up by remixes from Kindimmer and Matteo Floris.

Listen: <http://soundcloud.com/sinnmusik-1/sets/sm024>

The title track kicks things off with a plodding, ghetto-House groove that smashes through passages of swirling synth lines and spoken word before Greek producer Kindimmer follows up releases on Telefonplan, Canary and Local Talk with a rough and powerful revision built for brimful dancefloors.

Via Italy to Barcelona, Matteo Floris then follow up his releases on Kumasi Music and Erase Records with a bumping, Tech-suffused take on the title track that, propelled by a bubbling synth line and clattering snares, keeps the pressure up throughout.

'Sample Era' then sits nifty vocal sampling atop a juddering low-end that evinces an artist who's truly mastered his sound and rounds up another solid package on a label going from strength to strength."
