The title track 'Smiling Faces' kicks things off with melodically stabbed layers held together by a distinctive commanding bassline with an underlying super-solid groove.

Big Bait owner, DJ and producer Peter Clamat gives the track a refreshing remix that hits high-tones, arpeggiated ambients and a remarkable rhythm patterning that will make any head nod to the beat.

Roman's partner in crime and co-owner of their Soul Estate record label; Suaave steps up for remix duties with a infectious and galactic 2015-Edit, plentiful clap and snare action keeps the track driving and building.

The EP closes with 'Still A Tool' making sure everyone will want this record in their bag. Dancefloor tested and approved this track hits those crucial auditive elements creating a track that will surely become a future classic.

A versatile package with something surely for everyone.
